

Take charge of your co-operative future Two opportunities in Antalya

#1: Join us for the Alliance Youth Network General Meeting

Want to help shape the co-operative movement? Now is your chance.

The Alliance's Youth Network will hold its General Meeting on 10 November 2015 in Antalya, Turkey.

Participants will elect members to the Network's Executive Committee.

You can nominate candidates for the Committee by completing the nomination form and sending it to Gabriela Buffa at gabibuffa@gmail.com by 29 September.

Not a member of the Youth Network yet? Register by completing this form.

See you in Antalya!

#2: Make your voice heard at the Global Conference and General Assembly

Young co-operators have an important role to play at the Alliance's Global Conference and General Assembly in Antalya, Turkey on 10-13 November.

At a session on 11 November from 14.00-15.30, youth from around the world will develop a joint statement on leadership to present to the Global Conference.

This will also be the occasion for young co-operators to meet, discuss the challenges and opportunities of co-operative leadership and explore their vision for the future.

Participants during the Alliance's General Assembly will also elect the organisation's new President, and a truly democratic process will require youth participation.

Reduced rates for young co-operators

Participants aged 35 years or younger can qualify for a reduced rate to attend the Alliance's Global Conference.

Complete this form and send it to guarrella@ica.coop.

Register today at www.antalya2015.coop