

CALL FOR PAPERS

REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION 2014

International Co-operative Alliance – Committee on Co-operative Research

Special Issue: Young and emerging scholars' research in co-operative studies

Submission Deadline: 31 August 2014

The International Co-operative Alliance Committee on Co-operative Research (CCR) invites new and upcoming scholars – currently studying or within two years after graduation – in co-operative studies and/or co-operative business to submit their research papers to be considered for publication in the peer-reviewed 2014 edition of the Review of International Co-operation dedicated to young scholars. Papers must present new research and cannot be already published in academic journals or working papers. Co-authored papers will be accepted.

This special issue of the Review will showcase multi-disciplinary research of the emerging scholars in co-operative enterprises and co-operative studies more generally.

Note: Papers already submitted by young and emerging scholars for the special edition of the Journal of Co-operative Management and Organization on 'Co-operatives in local and regional development' in conjunction with the CCR 2014 research conference in Pula, Croatia will automatically be considered for the special edition of the Review.

Best Paper Awards: Papers by young and emerging scholars accepted for publication in EITHER the Special edition of the Journal of Co-operative Management and Organization OR the Review of International Co-operation will be adjudicated by the reviewers; the top three papers will be awarded prizes as follows:

- 1st Place 500 Euros
- 2nd Place 300 Euros
- 3rd Place 200 Euros

Editors: Milford Bateman and Sonja Novkovic

Submitted papers should be between 4000-5000 words, written in English.

Submit to: Sonja Novkovic snovkovic@smu.ca no later than 31 August 2014.
